

The Prospector

From Lake County High School

Volume XII Issue 3

November 18, 2004

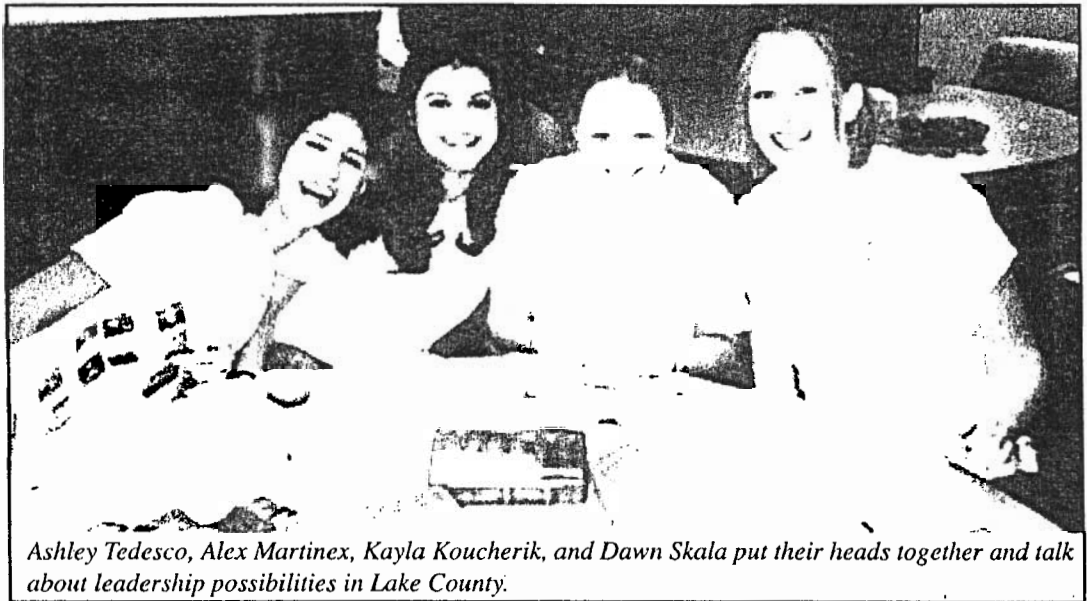

T.R.A.I.L. Takes Off

by Dawn Skala and Amy Zornes

A new club has been created at LCHS. T.R.A.I.L. Youth leadership is a group of students from all different walks of LCHS life. Thirty students have been selected to come together to help solve some major issues amongst students at LCHS.

A leadership training conference was held on October 21 in the National Mining Hall of Fame convention center. Founder of the T.R.A.I.L. program, Mr. Pat traveled from Colorado Springs to host the training. Students listened to Pat's message, and also engaged in fun hands-on activities.

The meaning of values and how values apply to everyone's lives were two topics of discussion during the morning session. After returning from lunch students practiced leadership activities such as how to budget money, and ways to improve problems at LCHS.

Ashley Tedesco, Alex Martinex, Kayla Koucherik, and Dawn Skala put their heads together and talk about leadership possibilities in Lake County.

T.R.A.I.L. Youth

Leadership plans to meet once a month working on leadership skills and improving LCHS issues. Thanks to Counselor Anna Whitmore, Middle School Counselor Kristen Meyers, and Amy Peters, the new organization has great expectations, and hopes to accommodate all aspects of LCHS life.